

Memorabilia & Gifts

Mayo Clinic Alumni Association

Welcome

The Mayo Clinic Alumni Association is pleased to offer these fine products for your memorabilia and special gift needs. Most items are on display and may be purchased from the Mayo Clinic Alumni Center located on the Rochester, Minnesota downtown campus, Siebens Building fifth floor.

New memorabilia items may be added throughout the year and may be viewed in our Rochester office or online store: alumniassociation.mayo.edu/shop/, where Alumni may order directly or download a Memorabilia & Gifts order form. A flat U.S. postage rate of $12.50 is charged for all orders, except those for lamps and chairs. International orders, shipping charges are based on destination. A breakdown of shipping charges can be found on the order form.

Mayowood Heritage Hemlock Items

During renovations in the spring of 2013 at Mayowood, the country home of Dr. Charles H. Mayo, it was necessary to take down three Hemlock trees (coniferous evergreens). The trees were estimated by local master gardeners to be at least 100 years old and are believed to have been planted by Dr. Charlie.

Commemorative Stamp Pen

This pen celebrates a stamp issued by U.S. Postal Service in 1964 to honor the Mayo brothers. This honor was the result of planning and advocacy from stamp enthusiasts in Rochester, Minnesota, who contacted Eleanor Roosevelt for support. The issuance of the stamp was a focal point of the Mayo centennial year in 1964. The wood box holding the pen is adorned with a 1964 stamp; pen features sheets of stamps embedded into polished acrylic.
